

Low Emissions Livestock Demonstration Field Day

The Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development, On-farm Carbon Advice project are hosting a “Livestock Emissions” Demonstration Field Day at Trangie Agricultural Research Station.

The demonstration will cover:

- general information about on-farm emissions and carbon management
- livestock weigh systems and animal behaviour Agtech
- low methane beef
- low methane pastures
- grazing management
- methane measurement tools
- delivery of feed additives
- Farms of the Future: Agtech education bus displaying Agtech devices and connectivity solutions

For further information, please contact Trangie Agricultural Research Station or Tracie Bird-Gardiner at tracie.bird-gardiner@dpiird.nsw.gov.au 0429 260 419
Clare Edwards clare.edwards@dpiird.nsw.gov.au

When: Friday 20 March 2026

Time: 10:00am - 2:00pm

Cost: Free

Catering provided

Please remember clean shoes and clean vehicles when entering the research station.

Register here

